

Wanhuida Partner speaks at Wolters Kluwer event

Time: Aug 24
2023

On 24th August 2023, the “Symposium on Corporate Hot-button Legal Compliance Matters under the New Situation”, which is organized by Wolters Kluwer, the leading global information services and solutions company, is convened in Beijing.

He Wei, Partner of Wanhuida Intellectual Property delivers a keynote speech on “Practice & Developing Trend of the IP Punitive Damages Regime”. He Wei also serves as a panelist in the ensuing roundtable and interacts with fellow panelists on the prevalent legal risks and coping mechanism in the future.

He Wei delivering keynote speech

He Wei (L1) speaking at roundtable

Wolters Kluwer also takes the opportunity to launch the “Wolters Kluwer Annual Practice Guide 2023: Corporate Law Practice Guide”. The Guide features 7 chapters including Anti-bribery & Criminal Compliance, Internet Safety & Data Compliance, Ad Compliance, Labor & Employment Compliance, IP Compliance, Commercial Dispute Resolution and Tax Compliance. The Guide delineates the legislative framework and the changes thereof, offers practical tips to businesses by dissecting key issues and case law, and offers detailed takeaways in terms of due diligence, contract review and legal retrieval.

Wanhuida authors the IP Compliance Chapter of the Guide. The Chapter addresses the legal framework and practice in trademark, patent, copyright, unfair competition, trade secret and anti-monopoly, identifies the pitfalls and risks and offers compliance advice to businesses in detecting and addressing underlying risks.

