

Wanhuida Partner speaks at SCIA panel

Time: June 14
2024

On 14th June 2024, “The Latest Practice of IP Disputes Resolution: Economic Evaluation and Patent Licensing”, which is jointly organized by Taylor Wessing and Oxera Consulting LLP, supported by the Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration (SCIA), is held at SCIA Tower in Shenzhen.

Chen Qiaomei

The event features a heated panel discussion titled “Legal Risks and Dispute Resolution Strategies of Patent Use in Enterprises Going Global”. Moderated by Michael Washbrook, Partner of Taylor Wessing, four panelists including Shreya Gupta, Principal of Oxera Consulting LLP, Dr. Jan Phillip Rektorschek, Partner of Taylor Wessing, Jason Yao, SCIA Arbitrator, Partner and Management Committee member of Wanhuida Intellectual Property and Sabrina Wang, SCIA Arbitrator engage in penetrating discussion over how could Chinese businesses avert patent infringement risks during the globalization process and the coping strategy in dealing with infringement disputes.

Panel discussion

Panelists (Clockwise, Jason Yao, Sabrina Wang, Shreya Gupta & Dr. Jan Phillip Rektorschek)

Group photo (Jason Yao, L2)

Panelists networking with attendees

The event attracts over 60 participants, including in-house counsels, attorneys-at-law and academicians. The event, which is part of the International Arbitration Outlook, a permanent fixture of the South China In-house Counsel Forum, aims to invite SCIA overseas arbitrators and international arbitration experts to share the latest arbitration development and practice in difference jurisdictions, so as to facilitate the globalization efforts of Chinese businesses.