

Wanhuida Partner speaks at INTA World IP Day event in China

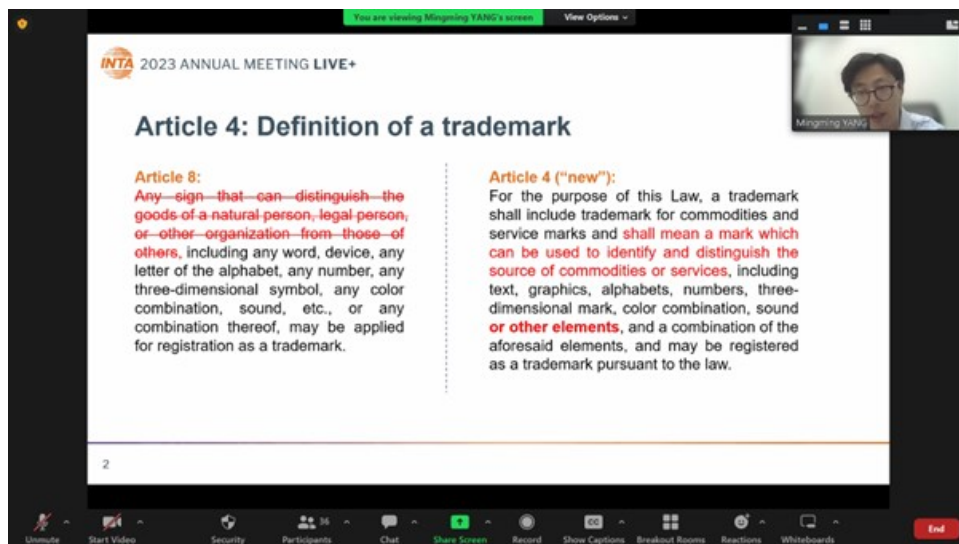

Time: Apr 25
2023

In celebration of the World IP Day, INTA's China Office hosts a virtual roundtable to brief the global membership INTA's views and position on the 5th Amendment of China's Trademark Law on April 25, 2023.

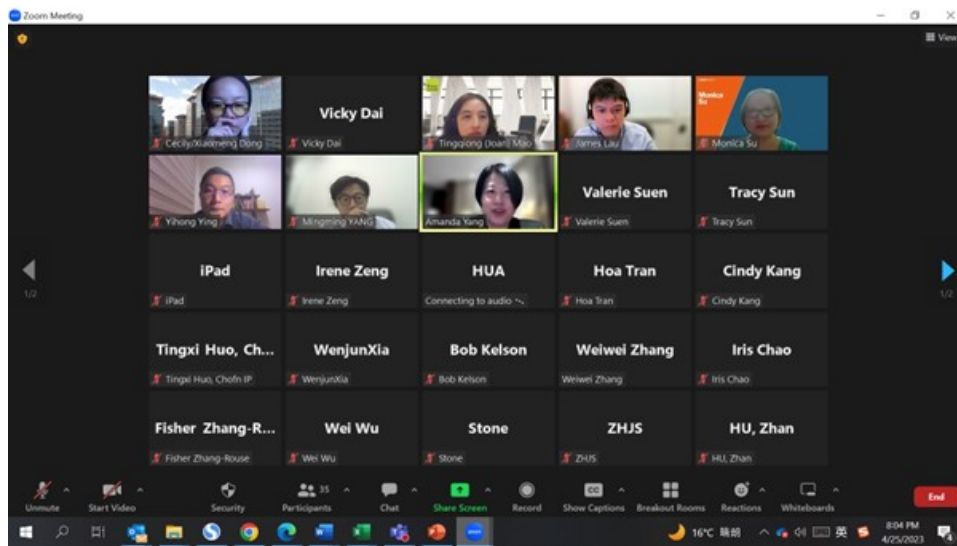

Nearly 60 members joins in the insightful discussion on the most critical changes in the draft amendment, covering penalties against bad faith filers, expanded protection to non-traditional marks and well-known marks, and newly introduced use requirements.

Yang Mingming, Partner of Wanhuida Intellectual Property shares his insights on the revision pertinent to non-traditional trademarks in the draft amendment.

INTA will further the discussion with the government officials during the 2023 Annual Meeting Live+ in Singapore.
