Wanhuida ranked in Chambers Greater China Region Legal Guide 2025

ニュース > 荣誉と実績

On 16th January 2025, Chambers and Partners announces the launch of the Chambers Greater China Region 2025 guide. The guide brings together extensive, independent in-depth market analysis, and rankings of the leading law firms and professionals across all four jurisdictions of the Greater China Region, featuring five exclusive sections: China (International Firms), Hong Kong Bar, China (PRC Firms), Macau SAR and Taiwan Jurisdiction.

Through the rigorous and independent research process, Wanhuida Intellectual Property and its five practitioners have again emerged as market leaders and elite practitioners in the intellectual property field.

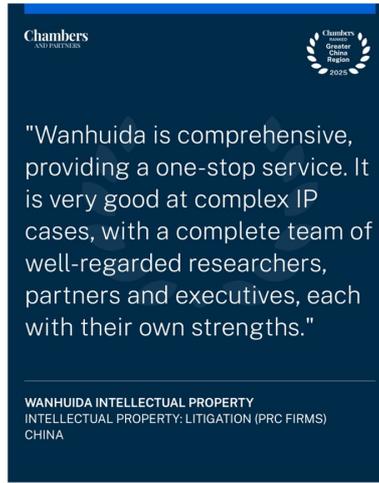

Wanhuida is ranked in Band 2 in the categories of “Intellectual Property: Litigation (PRC Firms)” and “Intellectual Property: Non-litigation (PRC Firms)”. The firm is accredited by the Chambers research team as “housing a strong bench of practitioners who act on a diverse range of litigation and non-litigation matters”, with a team “active before various IP courts across China”, and “especially impressive at handling patent and trade mark issues for a range of large foreign corporations from the technology, retail, pharmaceuticals and entertainment industries” as well as representing “domestic entities in enforcement and infringement matter”.

Various sources laud the firm as being a “comprehensive” player “providing a one-stop service”. The firm’s niche of being “very good at complex IP cases, with a complete team of well-regarded researchers, partners and executives, each with their own strengths” is highlighted and praised. The firm’s clients commend its “knowledge, expertise and attentiveness”, its “extensive team with diverse knowledge” as well as its quick turnaround time and good communication skills.
